Whereas, Shelley Willott of Saint Peters, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a communications arts teacher in the Francis Howell School District; and

Whereas, on November 15, 2001, Shelley Willott enhanced her already impressive record of achievements when she was publicly recognized by the Missouri NBPTS Network for her National Board Certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards; and

Whereas, National Board Certification is a lengthy, rigorous assessment which can take up to three years to complete and which results in a less than forty percent success rate for first-time applicants; and

Whereas, part of the evaluative process which Shelley Willott underwent to earn National Board Certification included appraisal by a jury of qualified experts in states other than Missouri:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the educational accomplishments garnered by teacher Shelley Willott down through the years and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon her completion of National Board Certification through the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards and our best wishes for continued success as a respected employee of the Francis Howell School District; and
